

"Solstice! Honouring Winter's Sacred Landscape"

Salon and Sanctuary on Friday 6th December 2019

9.00am for 9.30am to 5.00pm at Tofte Manor, Souldrop Lane, Sharnbrook, Bedfordshire, MK44 1HH

"Many people who are secretly weary of work have never given themselves time, or taken time out or away from work, to allow their spirits to catch up. It is a simple but vital reflective exercise to give yourself plenty of time, leave all agendas behind you. Let the neglected presence of your soul come to meet and engage you again. It can be a lovely re-acquaintance with your forgotten mystery."

Anam Cara, John Donohue

About the Salon

As the earth is stilling, we are also invited to pause as we say "yes!" that is both a moment in time and is also timeless. As you put yourself into alignment with the stilling of the earth, at this Salon you can also be held in community as you – and we together - salute the years end and gift yourself a little rest and renewal as you perhaps see in a fresh and different light and start to invite the new into form.

In this Sanctuary we will gather to take time together to honour the year that has just been, in order to help shape our hope and desires for the next year. We can reflect on the store of good experiences and memories that will act like a winter store cupboard to nurture us in the longer nights and shorter days of winter. We can have the space – alone and in community – to germinate the seeds of new thoughts, ideas and projects over the months to come as we connect to the essence of what we hope will take root in the Spring.

About the Day

We will gather in The Sanctuary in the parklands of Tofte Manor to connect to winter's reflective energy, what you want from this day in the splendour of this sacred landscape. You will discover your word for 2020. You will craft your personal fragrance from essential oils to represent what it is you most desire in 2020. All materials will be provided. Plenty of coffee, tea and hot chocolate will be available with lots of seasonal treats. Lunch will be a hearty soup with bread and cheese! Dress warmly and for all weathers! Bring your journal, pens and camera!

The Salon is eligible for 7 hours CPD and CPD Certificates will be provided
